North Carolina Farmers' State Alliance,

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 21, 1890

Dear Bro. Carr:

I am very sorry that I did not receive your letter sooner. I had already sent the word to more than fifty Counties when I rec'd it. Will be glad to see you as soon as you can come up.

Have received an order from National Sec'y to send him out of our Treasury the $25 per capita we owe the National Alliance. Of course I have no authority to do so.

Thought of writing to you & the State Ex. Com. in regard to the matter, but as you are coming up on the 5th ult. I shall not write them until I see you.

Yours fraternally
 E. C. Beddingfield

P.S. Col. Polk is at his home in Raleigh quite sick. I expect to see him this evening.
