

Yehale Seminary
Oxford, N. C.
April 14, 1884.

My dear little Girl:

Your letter was received last evening - such a nice, sweet letter - It gave "Ma" so much pleasure - You don't know how proud she is of her little girl's accomplishments at school - You are doing good work - I am delighted to know that you are fond of it.

It was so sweet of you to assure "Ma" that you would not forget her - She is satisfied to hold the place in your heart next to your parents, you are so dear to her, and such a Sunbeam in her life - She doesn't know that - you are second to anyone.

I wonder how you and Betsy have spent this lovely Easter day! Have you been hunting for eggs? I mean Easter eggs. Some of the Children here had quite a search and found a variety of pretty eggs - Do you remember your search for Easter eggs when you were a tiny little girl?

I have just gotten in from Church. I went twice to day to hear Bishop's sermon - He preached two beautiful sermons and to night Congregation on the same young girl. The Church was decorated with lovely Hyacinths and lilies - I was surprised to see so many pretty flowers - We have had such late spring. You must kiss Mother and Betsy for me and give love so much love to Miss Mary, your father and Mr. John and to Miss Helen your dear him - Tell Mother I and her a book which I love to read daily.

I hope she will enjoy it - I will write to her in a day or two - Good Bless you my Darling - From Grandpa