Dear Sir: & Mrs

Could a man be initiated without being in the Alliance this man is not able to go to the meeting he is not an object of charity yet he is able to pay all of fees. he is willing to join the order he believes in it and he & his wife wants to join the Alliance wants to know if they could go to his st. house and take in him in without violation of the Constitution. Let me know at once if they can go to his house he is a former Yorkshireman
A. M. Parker
Secy Sect of Jackson Alliance

I do not see any objection to meeting at his house and taking him in. 9/13/89

I have answered 18 letters & postals and only send your first batch - as there is a P. called Sporta - you better get Polk to caution them Bros to write of
