Sometime since

I saw a ruling of yours in regard to brandy distillers.

Bro A. is a good farmer and a zealous Alliance man. He has just commenced distilling grain on a small scale. 6 or 8 gallons per day. This in no wise curtails, or interferes with, his farming operations.

Would the fact of his running a business under a privilege tax demand his withdrawal from the Order?

Yours truly
