

The two most important objects in life are the discovery of what is true, and the practice of what is good.

Dear Sir & Bro.

Some time ago I wrote you a letter requesting a brief sketch of your life, a cabinet sized photo of yourself for publication in the revised edition of my book, circulars of which I herewith enclose. Having received no response I hope you will pardon me for renewing the request as I am very desirous of making the work complete and shall take pleasure in mailing you a complimentary copy when published.
Hoping to have a favorable reply
I am

Yours Fraternaly
W. S. Morgan
