

W. H. WORTH,

State Business Agent OF THE N. C. Farmers' State Alliance,

Raleigh, N. C., 2/28 1890

Dear Bro Carr,

Yours returning contract papers H & C in relation to the Cotton Bagging to hand. I shall exceedingly regret to have any sum of our money locked up in cotton bagging.

I have samples of sacks weighing  $2\frac{1}{10}$  each @  $7\frac{1}{2}$  F. O. B. w Child, I think that too high. Will try other parties, & report.

But will not contract for any till definite instruction from Ex Com!

Yours Truly
W. H. Worth
