

National Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union.

OFFICERS.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

PRESIDENT.
VICE-PRESIDENT.

916 E STREET N. W.

OFFICE OF

J. H. TURNER,

Secretary.

Atlanta

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

8/20

1890.

Dear Sir ^{Mr} Br.

I send you this day copy of Journal (Atlanta)
 You will see that Dr Macome has antagonized our interests - there and is getting up a row as he did in Texas.
 He is very smart but is not prudent.
 He will not do for a leader - and the outcome will be the Economist will get of his hands, and the National will be forced to own and

I am Sir, Truly and Yours,

D. H. Patterson