

ROOMS

State Democratic Executive Committee,

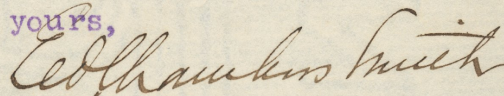

No. 228 FAYETTEVILLE STREET,

Raleigh, N. C., 1890.

Mr. E. C. No. 2.

cratic nominee to enable Mr. York to be elected. This should not be. It is certainly true that the hope of the Alliance, and the hope of all the good people in North Carolina is in the success of the Democratic party. While there may be some slight difference between the views of some of the candidates and the principles of the Alliance, still they are almost together and the success of one means the success of the other. I regard the 8th district as being in worse shape than any of the others, owing to the disaffection towards Col. Cowles. You asked me in your letter to "indicate where a word would be most effective" from you, and I have taken the liberty of doing this. There is some danger of the Legislature being Republican; while I do not regard it as great, still our people must do their whole duty and exert themselves to the utmost or our opponents may succeed. Thanking you for your very kind expressions personally to myself, as well as the Democratic cause, which I have the honor in part, temporarily to represent, I am

Very truly yours,

Chairman.

The General Land Office

Washington, D. C.

February 10, 1882

Dear Sir:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 1st inst. in relation to the application for a patent for an improvement in the method of cutting and fitting the teeth of saws. The same is referred to the Commissioner of Patents for his consideration. It is to be understood that the Commissioner of Patents is not to be held responsible for the result of his examination of the application, and that the applicant is to be held responsible for the correctness of the facts stated in the application. The Commissioner of Patents is to be held responsible for the correctness of the facts stated in the application, and the applicant is to be held responsible for the correctness of the facts stated in the application.

Very respectfully,
J. M. [Signature]