NO. 228 FAYETTEVILLE STREET,

Raleigh, N. C., October 22, 1890.

DICTATED.

Mr. Elias Carr,

Old Sparta, N. C.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of Oct. 10th was received during a short absence from the city, and was placed in a batch of letters which had been replied to, by the Secretary, and it only came under my notice this morning. I should have answered it earlier but for that. Dr. R. H. Speight sent us a check for $90, the receipt of which was acknowledged. I appreciate very much your efforts in behalf of the Democratic party and trust that you will continue them. I know that your services will be of great value; a line from you to many of your people would tend to strengthen their allegiance to the Democratic party. There is considerable apathy in certain parts of the State among them, and you can do much to arouse their enthusiasm. You could be of great service to us, if you would drop a line to some of the Alliance men in the 8th district and urge them to support the regular Democratic nominee, Col. Cowles. It is very certain that Dr. York will be a candidate for Congress in that district, and that Mr. Faucett is brought out for the very purpose of taking enough votes from the Demo-
