

Oct 14

Hon^l Elias Carr,
Old Sparta,
N.C.

Dear Bro^l

Please answer the following question, Is it in accordance with the spirit of the Alliance for a member to take employment as drummer on salary or commission, for a tobacco factory?

We have a case of this kind in our Lodge. The circumstances of the case these, we have a young brother initiated, who was offered business tobacco factory in Winston, N.C. consulting several Alliance commended him that it would obedient to the order to the business, did engage selling tobacco for says that he has good faith, and alliance, and they direct,
tell me to submit to you and I am hoping

Dear Mother
The day
1851

I have been thinking of writing to you for some time but have been so busy that I could not find time to do so. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same.

I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work.
I have not much news to
write at present. I am
still in the same place
and doing the same work.
I have not much news to
write at present. I am
still in the same place
and doing the same work.
I have not much news to
write at present. I am
still in the same place
and doing the same work.
I have not much news to
write at present. I am
still in the same place
and doing the same work.

My dear Mrs. Jones.

As solemnly

W. S. Melick

Attorney at Law

Handwritten text at the top of the page, possibly a title or header, which is mostly illegible due to blurring.

The image shows a large, faint table with multiple columns and rows. The text within the table is mostly illegible due to blurring. A large, dark blue shadow or smudge is visible in the lower right quadrant of the page, partially overlapping the table's content.