Dear Father.

Judging from your communication to Putnam I should say that you were well instructed in the art of epistolary correspondence. It was well put & just the thing. I have written him & Dickerson, & you can imagine, I dare say, with what anxiety I await replies. It has been raining for some time, but today is clear & bright with high barometer, indicating continued good weather. No news, I shall write when I hear from P. & D.

Lustily & devotedly

My dear Mr. A.

Dear Sir,

I have just received your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the road bridge. It is very much interesting to me and I am glad to hear that you are so much interested in it. I have been thinking of it for some time and I am sure you will find it very interesting. I have been thinking of it for some time and I am sure you will find it very interesting. I have been thinking of it for some time and I am sure you will find it very interesting.

Truly & respectfully,

W. B. Allen
