

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

World's Columbian Commission.

PULLMAN BUILDING,

Chicago, Ill. U.S.A. Oct. 2nd., 1890.

Hon. Elias Carr,

Alternate World's Fair Commissioner,

Old Sparta, N. C.,

Dear Sir:-

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 29th. inst., covering one voucher for your expenses and per diem during the recent meeting of the World's Columbian Commission.

The Department requires two vouchers, and I enclose you another blank to be filled out and sworn to precisely as this one has been, and would request you also to sign the receipt at the bottom of the first page of each voucher before returning them to me for my certificate. If these receipts are not signed, the Treasury Department will again forward them to you which will result in considerable delay, so you might as well sign them now and then when I have forwarded them to Washington, a check will shortly be issued.

Please return these vouchers to me promptly.

With kind regards,

Yours very sincerely,

John T. Dickinson,
Secretary.
