Pro. State Alliance

Dear Brother I learn that the Alliance in Kansas have nominated their candidates for the next Election, which I do not approve of yet, as the Alliance are not strong enough within itself to Elect these tickets, and if we do this, our enemies will consolidate against us. I approve of the plan of that Bro. Polk advised in the progressive, that is for the Alliance members to attend the convention and nominate Dutch Men for offices that will openly declare themselves in favor of the Alliance, and if we are successful in this, it will not matter with the Alliance which party are Elected, nor if part of each party are elected

We (the Abianer) will have our representatives, (and what more will we need) for if we have our representatives, we will have all, and then the old parties can go to the dogs for what we care, and if we should not be successful in getting a man to every office (yes from the President-Chair to a school commit-man) that will openly declare himself in favor of the Abianer, we should consolidate against that candidate matter not what party he belongs to and vote for his opponent who declares himself in favor of the Abianer. (Not that I feel able to advise) but I think that ever sub Abianer should be so instructed to act, I think that we are strong enough to so wave the next Election by following this plan
