

OFFICE OF _____

L. L. POLK, President.

National Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union.

511 Ninth Street N. W.,

Washington, D. C., 6-27 1890.

Dear Bro. Beddingfield

I was at the Census Dept yesterday. They said all the States had responded but yours. That Bro Carr had promised an early reply.

They seem anxious to have N. C. alliance well in the Census.

Palmer

D. H. R.

Dear Bro Carr:

I enclose Old Foggy's letter on I am doubtless give them a more satisfactory answer than I. Politics red-hot. Graham & Alexander's chances both improving. Hope you will pull for Bro. Newcome. Truly, E. C. Beddingfield