Dear Sir and Bro

Believing you to be better versed in the workings of our order than any other, please do us the kindness to answer the following question. When our State constitution says the President shall hold office only for two ^{years} does it apply to the Sub Alliance Pres. Why we ask this question is at our election we elected our Pres who had served for two years, believing and knowing that he could hold the order together better than any member in it and thinking that the constitution only had reference to State Pres we for you know that the State has more timber to select from than we have. we might or not. Some of the other Sub Alliances seem to think we are wrong, but don't believe they know, for the constitution is not near explicit enough as we can see, please answer at your earliest convenience our ablige the Brethren of allice No 899

Fraternally
