

ARGOLA

Box 10 Charlotte N.C.

April 10th 1898

Hon. Elias Carr,

Old Sparta, N.C.

Dear Sir and Bro.,

At the late meeting of our County Alliance, a series of Resolutions were passed by a majority of the delegates. Notice of an appeal was immediately given by representatives of several Alliances.

There is nothing in the Constitution relative to such cases. (I mean the "Old" Constitution - the "New" was ordered some time since, but has not yet come.) The object of this is to inquire: To whom is the Appeal to be sent?

Is the appeal to be decided by yourself, or the State Ex. Com., or by yourself ^{and} the Ex. Com.? Or by the State Alliance?

Is there any Bond to be entered into?
Should the appeal, together with the papers, (The Resolutions) be sent up by the Alliances, - i. e.; with the names of the Alliances appended; or signed by an individual representative or representatives, of the several Alliances appealing?

I have been requested to ask you
the above questions - and for any other instructions necessary -

An early reply is requested.

Yours fraternally
L. M. McAlister,
Sec. Wack. Co. Alliance
