Dear Sir & Bro.

Can a member of the Alliance become a local agent for any Co. or Manufacturer to sell their Products The reason of trouble you with this question is this We have a member who has Taken an agency for the Buckeye Mowers & Reapers. it has created some disturbance in the Alliance. & I do not know where it is going to stop. That you may fully understand the case I will state it more clearly. The member came to the Alliance. and ask the Alliance for permission to take the agency

The Alliance granted it, but now claim they acted too hastily and are not satisfied about it. The man is one of our best members. Now what are we to do about the matter? Will you please answer this. I would like for you to answer direct to to me if you can if not why then through the Progressive Farmer. Please answer as soon as possible. I would like to have it before our next meeting. Our Alliance is No 1339. Lower Creek, Caldwell Co.

Yours Fraternaly
