Dear Sir & Brother:-

When the Board

on the good of the order causes numbers at variance to be brought before them, to adjust alleged difficulties between parties, & both parties agree ^{to leave} the matter to their decision & abide the same, & one of the parties at variance dissents from the decision of the B-G-O before any judgement is rendered by them, on the ground of illegality in the proceedings of the B-G-O they having taken into consideration matters which occurred before either party at variance were members of F.A.

Ques 1 - Can the B-G-O render a decision in such case, or report in open Alliance terms of settlement over the protest of one of the parties at variance?

Ques 2 - Can a sub Fa bring charges against said dissenting member, for violating his obligations as a member, & in subordination, in refusing
