

THE NATIONAL ECONOMIST,
A FARMER'S PAPER,
Devoted to Social, Financial, and Political Economy.
OFFICIAL ORGAN OF
The National Farmers Alliance and Co-Operative
Union of America.
AND
The National Agricultural Wheel,
AND
The Farmers and Laborers Union of America.
1015 G St., Cor. 11th N. W.
Washington, D. C.
C. W. MACUNE, . . . . . EDITOR.

Washington D.C. Apr. 22nd 1889

Dear Sir Bro; — I have today received your several copies of No 6 of the National Economist in page No 875, which you will find my explanation of a meeting of representative men from 15 of the states to supplement and carry out the grand effort started by the State Alliance in Georgia.

I write this to secure your personal cooperation in the matter and to ask that you will get a full representation from your state, please write to each man whom you think will be a delegate and urge upon him the necessity of going and of putting himself so that he may do good work while there. As this becomes my letters may not reach all or I may have the address of some wrong. Please center the Economist and keep the cause.

Yours fraternally

C. W. Macune