

OFFICE OF _____

L. L. POLK, President,

National Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union,

511 Ninth Street N. W.,
344 D STREET.

Washington, D. C., Jan 13th 1894

My Dear Sir and Pm.

I recognize the fact that the action of the Supreme Council creating the National Legislative Council, conferred no more power on the National President, in the premises, than upon any other member of that body.

But in response to several inquiries from members of our body asking my views as to what would probably receive most prominent attention, I hereby submit, with due deference the following:

Under the act we are restricted to the demands of the Supreme Council for legislative reform, and to such methods as we may deem best for securing these reforms.

1st The best measure for relieving the financial depression in agriculture, and

2nd The best method for securing it.

In devising a measure for relief, would or would it not be wise for our body, as a preliminary step, to secure a conference with such members of Congress as may admit the necessity for such legislation, with the view
