Dear Sir, & Bro

Will you do me the kindness to let me know if I am ineligible to membership in the alliance. I have recently engaged in manufacturing shoes - I am working only about 3 or 4 hands I sell them by wholesale & Retail in my own County - My workmen are all alliance men. - Would you recommend me to take a withdrawal card the members do not want me to give me up. Could I not run the business under the supervision of the alliance the business is a matter of compulsion on my part to support my family am very anxious to remain in the order & do all I can for the same

Yours Fraternally
