RALEIGH, N. C.

North Carolina Farmers' State Alliance,

Raleigh, N. C., May 26 1899

Dear Bro. Carr:

I enclose you a letter from Bro. Sawyer. It seems these alliances first passed a resolution to consolidate and hold their meetings at Oregon. In accordance with that resolution one of them moved to Oregon when the other refused to consolidate as they had votes to do. Now they seem to be making war upon each other and are holding their meetings within 1/2 mile of each other. I thought I had all the correspondence in regard to the matter but cannot find it on file. The secy of Richland Alliance is H. G. Sawyer, South Coast, N.C. The secy of Eastern Alliance is R. P. Johnson, South Coast, N.C. I have written both of them to write to you at once and give a complete explanation of the whole matter. Hope you can get them straight.

Truly & paternally,
E. C. Beddingfield.
