

May 26th 1862

Dear Brother Carr

Will you add one more question to the above

if a brother sells any of his property for the purpose of placing the money to his Cr, & after having sold it, he finds that his merchants, & others have talk about him in & slander him so as to have injured his Cr so that he may not be able to get supplies to support his family & to make a crop with, is it right or brotherly for the Alliance to deal with & expose them for keeping that money to protect his family & to enable him to pay the account in the future? If these questions are not in a proper form I hope that you will understand the nature of the case, & answer them as in your judgement is right & justice to all.

Yours truly

B. F. Beverly

