Dear Bro Carr.

From W. L. Carr
just rec'd

From my standpoint I see nothing in the Tomazette Bill that will be productive of good for us.

Your views, I think are correct. In short it would be a clean steal.

The Wall street political ideas are - give me bounties - either a form of tariff or direct so I will grow richer.

Those connected with the National Office & Communist see it as you do.

So you think we have a mutual admiration society do you. I hope so. "Barren is million."

So you think you cant be a candidate for political office.

Well, I cant blame you much

Dear Sir,
 I have the pleasure
 to inform you that your order for the purchase of books has been forwarded to the printer and will be ready for delivery in a few days.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
 your obedient servant,

just now. Our people are not yetmeared. But they are eating more meat and less bread daily.

I would not have an office - political I despise it. I am not bent that way. But some time you will it looks to me be forced to the point
however much you may oppose it.
We do not know what will come next. Stanford introduced a bill yesterday for unlimited money issued or loaned at 2 per cent.

Of course I look for nothing.
Both-parties oppose our measure.
I am glad of it. If we had a solid support from the South at first it would kill the measure.
The hope for a report.

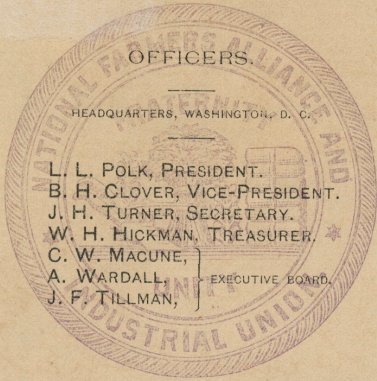

If I were managing Wall Street
I would do so - and in second reading
I would have the ayes & nays called for - and practically all showed vote for it. Here and there I would have a Kicker. Then I would not let it come up in its final passage. I presume they will be quite as hard on us as I must be if in their places.

Capt Alexander writes me that he has not the support of the Alliance men who are now holding office. He fears defeat.

Maj Graham writes that his (Alexander's) success is assured, but that his own (Graham's) is not.

If you will not run in your district who would you recommend?

There will be a strong effort made to overthrow both.

The Negro Alliance may run one of these men.
