Raleigh, N. C., May 13 1890.

My dear Col.

I'm afraid you will strike me a pestiferous scribbler but I omitted speaking to you on a matter that I have at heart. Walter Montgomery will be a candidate for the judgeship. I would not have you think me guilty of the impertinence of asking your support as against your country-man. But I would value very much as he will any service you can render him as a second choice of Edgewood. His position is that he would not of his own motion seek to supplant Judge Phillips but as the election will be entered he feels his right to apply for the legitimate friends of his profession. His position strikes me as sound & fair. You know his capacity as a lawyer better than I. With kind regards for you all

Yours truly
P. M. Wilson
