

Warrenton, W. C., May 9th, 1890.

Dear Uncle Elias:-

I promised you to see that the Edward Alston matter was attended to. He was here Monday and said that he had given an option to a syndicate on his Gold mine together with 200 acres of land and if they consummated the same he would be able to settle his entire indebtedness. To Tasker he stated that he wanted to sell 100 acres of land to John Brainerd and that another judgment would only tend to further trouble in making title to same. Doubtless he will protect you as against Dr. Fleming and all other claims against him have already been reduced to judgment. I suppose the $50⁰⁰ left for L. K. Overby was used by you.

Farmers are hard at work. Tobacco and Cotton planting just about finished.

Father has gained some flesh, but his mental anguish does not seem to abate one iota.

With love for all I am

Yours sincerely,

W. C. Parker
