Elias Carr, President, of N.C. Farmers Alliance

Dear Sir & Bro, on account-business pressure, your favor of April 21, was not answered in reference to the clay pea, there is no sale for them in this market, most of our members do not know what they mean, if you have any Black eye pea, they could be disposed of at a remunerative price, if members of the order desire to ship to this market which is a good one for limited quantities, I will gladly purchase them with stock. I hope the business agent, of the several States who make of necessity, ship to this market through limited, will patronize this house; I will endeavor to keep you satisfied upon the market, in the future and this, that I can do for you; our members of your State I will gladly do so.

Yours faithfully
Wm. Field. Foalby
