HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The Society of Friends, generally called Quakers, arose in England about the middle of the seventeenth century. George Fox began his ministry in 1647.—They proclaimed the truth that man's salvation is a personal matter between his own soul and God, and does not depend upon intervention of the church in any of its offices, or by any of its officers, in the administration of any rite, ordinance or ceremony whatever.—They proclaimed that the true baptism is that of Christ himself, who baptizes His people with the Holy Spirit and that the true communion is the spiritual partaking of the body and blood of Jesus Christ by faith, and that there is no form or degree of sacerdotalism in the Christian Church.—They took the title of Society because it was considered that the term church belonged to the whole body of Christ, and that no portion of that body had a right to assume to itself a name that implied any exclusion of others. The claims of the Established Church made this, in a measure, necessary. The name Friends was taken in accordance with the declaration of the Master: "Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you."

Preamble of Friends Declaration of Faith

We believe in one holy, almighty, all-wise, and everlasting God, the Father, the Creator and Preservor of all things; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, by whom all things were made, and by whom all things consist; and in one Holy Spirit, proceeding from the Father and the Son, the Reprover of the world, the Witness for Christ, and the Teacher, Guide, and Sanctifier of the people of God; and that these three are one in the eternal Godhead; to whom be honor, praise, and thanksgiving, now and forever. Amen.

THE QUERIES

Query 1. Are all meetings for worship and discipline duly held, and are you regular and punctual in attending them?

Query 2. Do you love one another as becomes the followers of Christ? Are you careful of the reputation of others? When differences arise, do you make earnest efforts to end them speedily?

Query 3. Do you earnestly seek to maintain a life of fellowship with the Lord Jesus Christ? Do you practice the daily reading of the Scriptures in your families, giving time for reverent waiting upon the Lord? Are you watchful not to be unduly absorbed by temporal affairs? Are you careful to avoid all places and amusements inconsistent with a Christian character?

Query 4. Do you provide for the suitable Christian education and recreation of your children and those under your care, and endeavor to train them for upright and useful lives? Are you thoughtful and careful to supervise their social activities and to guard them against harmful reading and evil associates? Do you encourage them to read and study the Scriptures? Do you prayerfully seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit on your efforts for their conversion and growth in grace?

Query 5. Do you abstain from the use of intoxicating liquor as a beverage? Do you faithfully encourage by example, vote and jury duty the enforcement of all laws and regulations relative to the traffic in intoxicating liquor and narcotics? Do you intelligently exercise your constitutional privilege of the franchise and thus seem to promote Christian influence locally, nationally and internationally?

Query 6. Do you consistently practice Jesus' spirit and teaching of love and good will to men? Do you support every Christian movement to do away with war and preparation for war? Do you endeavor to make clear to all whom you can influence and especially our own youth, that war is utterly un-Christian and cannot be reconciled with the spirit of Christ?

Query 7. Do you observe simplicity in your manner of living? Do you frequently inspect your affairs and settle your accounts? Are you careful to live within your income and avoid involving yourself in business beyond your ability to manage? Are you just in your dealings, punctual to your promises, prompt in the payment of your debts and free from defrauding the public revenue? Do you refrain from taking or administering oaths? Are the necessities of those likely to require aid inspected and relieved?

Query 8. Do you make diligent effort to acquaint yourselves and those under your care with the spiritual needs of the world; and do you support by prayer and systematic giving those who are laboring to extend Christ's kingdom?

Query 9. Are Friends as careful as they should be to acquaint themselves with the harmful effect of the cultivation, sale, and use of tobacco and do they discourage the practice?
