

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,

NORTH CAROLINA FARMERS' STATE ALLIANCE,

Charlotte, N. C., Feb 19th 1891

Bro Carr -

I have just read the proceedings of the Legislative Council - and am some what surprised at two things 1st - the cost of the State Council - 2nd - The placing of Bro Hall - the open, bold and fearless enemy of the sub-treasury on the Legislative Committee - The very fact of his being on the Committee will have the effect of busy<sup>ing</sup> the sub-treasury - and will give a hot stimulus to pension legislation which he advocates as the only proper plan to get the money out among the people - I confess that I am fearful that the action as published will give us a set back - I write to get your views and only give you my impressions from reading published report

Yours truly S. B. Alexander
