My Dear Sir,

Yours of the 16th inst. to hand and contents carefully noted. — I certainly feel grateful for your sympathy and admire the idea that you suggest. Whatever you may be able to accomplish in the direction mentioned by yourself will be highly appreciated, and I will see that you shall not have cause to regret your kindness. Please allow me to suggest that whatever is done through the work that it be kept entirely on that one cent had to given to aid me in this work, they would not follow me though they knew I was working for their good.

 They are very fearful that one will get a head - they need education.
 I merely mention this because I fear you and Bro. Small did not understand my people so well as I do. Any information or suggestions will be gladly received from you at any time. I am ready willing to do all I can in this ally
