My dear Sir

Peter C Davis wrote to you yesterday stating that he thought he could borrow $500 and wanted to know if you compromise your claim for that amount, I am not at all disposed to ~~think he~~ get the money & his object maybe to get additional time or to have some excuse for not giving quite possession of the property if it sold. If your reply to Peter's letter do not say anything that he could use in objecting to the sale or in the slightest degree give him an excuse for not giving quite possession of the property.

I have not the slightest confidence in him.

Very Respectfully
