

ALEX. D. ANDERSON,
SPECIAL COMMISSIONER.

DELMORE ELWELL,
SECRETARY.

EASTERN HEADQUARTERS

WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION,

STEWART BUILDING,

COR. BROADWAY AND CHAMBERS STREET.

New York, May 5, 1891.

Dear Sir:

I beg to inform you that Eastern Headquarters of the World's Columbian Exposition have just been opened in the Stewart Building, corner of Broadway and Chambers Street, New York City.

During the coming two years, or until the opening of the Exposition at Chicago, this office will be at the service of the merchant, manufacturer, producer, press and public of the Eastern States.

We will at all times be pleased to supply any desired information.

Very respectfully,

Alex. D. Anderson.

Special Commissioner.
