

OFFICE OF _____

L. L. POLK, President,

National Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union,

511 Ninth Street N. W.,

Washington, D. C. July 7 1890.

Mr Chas Carr

Old Sparta.

Dear Sir Mr Bro
Journals at hand.

I have sent a letter from Mr Geo
Williams to the Prof. Farmer.

He urges the brotherhood not to pledge for dance. Leave it to them - to decide - and after election to decide on the man.

Macune now is in favor of Peck.

It remains to be seen what the people will say after they read Dr Macunes article
McClannys and my questions.

I will follow with another

Write me.

Fulcrum
D & R