

Raleigh, 11th July 1890

Elias Carr, Esq
Old Sparta, N. C.

Dear Sir:

For many years
the railroad corporations have dictated the nominees of both parties and controlled the legislation of this State, and in consequence the corporations have prospered while all other classes have suffered, no man could receive a nomination at the hands of a State Convention without the assistance, or at any rate against the wish, of these corporations, and by some means, a majority of the legislature has been ready to carry out their will.

A large number of people having borne this state of things up to and beyond that point where patience ceases to be a virtue, influenced by the purest patriotism, have formed an organized resistance, and are endeavoring to secure such laws as are beneficial to all classes and such officers as will faithfully execute these laws. This is what I understand to be the cause and the object of the organization of which you are the head, and with which I have the deepest sympathy. But I fear there are some persons in your organization who are guided only by hopes of personal aggrandizement and honor and who are so bent on this that they may lose sight of the noble cause of this order - equal justice to all - and convert it into merely a political body with which to secure personal preferment.

There seems to be a disposition with some to do exactly that of which they have so justly complained: to set one class up above

all other classes, to ignore and even treat as enemies the merchant, the banker, the mechanic, the lawyer, the physician, persons engaged in incorporated enterprises, etc., and this feeling seems to be so strong that old party ties are greatly weakened & the Democratic party - our only salvation - endangered.

As I understand the grand principles and purposes of the Farmers Alliance they are the same for which the Democratic Party has always been, and is now, contending; but there are some misinformed, and some disigning, members of the Alliance who do not appear to see this and who are jealous & distrustful of all persons who are not members of this organization. What will this feeling lead to if not checked before it is too late?
I fear to contemplate it. - I love the Democratic party, I am in sympathy with the Farmers Alliance, and rejoice in the prosperity and strength of both. There should be no jar between the two. They should march, elbows touching, against the common enemy and that this may be secured it is in my opinion necessary to put at the head of the party a prominent Alliance man. I have therefore written this letter to persuade you to accept the chairmanship of the Dem. <sup>State</sup> Ex Committee and conduct the coming campaign. This would reconcile all Alliance men and give them renewed confidence in the democratic party, and at once silence any designing men who for purposes of their own would make of the Farmers' Alliance a distinct and independent political party.

It would also give to yourself additional prominence in the State and in 1892 make you the democratic nominee for governor. - The Democratic State Convention which is to meet here on 24th

Aug. will I am sure, with great anxiety tender you the Chairmanship if you will take it. Give this matter serious consideration and then let me hear from you

Sincerely your friend
Spier Whitaker
