

OFFICE OF
W. H. WORTH,

State Business Agent OF THE N. C. Farmers' State Alliance,

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 5th 1890

Mr Elias Carr

Dear sir and bro

What shall we do about Vance, Things are getting cross in our county, There are four candidates for the Legislature in our county, All Alliance men ~~are~~ By supporting the least objectionable to themselves, the opposition can dictate which one of these shall be nominated on next Saturday, and will do so, in that convention, They intend to endorse all of Vance's course, and require the nominee to declare unconditionally for him. Some of the brotherhood and the best men we have say if this is the case they will oppose the nominee with a democrat (and independent) They say they have endorsed Vance's course and were ardent admirers of him till the Sub Treasury Letter and ~~are~~ ^{are} willing to endorse him for all but that, I have advised against this movement, I have always been a great admirer of Senator Vance and yet
