

JOSEPHUS DANIELS, Editor.
D. H. BROWDER, Business Manager.

The State Chronicle.

ONE SUBSCRIPTION, DAILY, $6.00 PER YEAR.
" " WEEKLY, $1.25 " "

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 11th 1890.

My Dear Friend :-

I regret that I could not see you again before you got away. I wanted to have a long talk with you. I have read your speech over again & I want to say again that it is an utterance which does great credit to you & to the Alliance. I shall print it Wednesday morning in full, & say what a high estimate I place upon it.

I am very badly disappointed in that I cannot go to Ashcroft to-day. Mr. Browder is there, & last night our local editor, Mr. Ayer, received a telegram calling him to bring him to his mother who is sick,

This tells me here. I may get up Wednesday if Mr. Aizer can come back but I fear not.

I hope that you will have a pleasant & profitable session. My wife regrets that Mr. Carr was out when she called. Day

Sincerely Yours

Josephus Daniels
