

Morgantown
~~Prabuck~~ Aug 14th 1890

My Dear Col;

I have read with pleasure your address delivered at Asheville. You have said just enough and said it well. I congratulate you upon finding the golden mean. While your speech is conservative, as any fair minded person would desire, it defines the issue in State politics between rail roads and the people and in the national struggle between our own manufacturing monopolies and other unfavored industries.

With best wishes yours sincerely
A. L. Dwyer