Hon. Elias Carr

Pres. N. C. S. F. Alliance

Dear Sir:-

When an Alliance (Sub.) admits to its membership a man charged with, and proven to be guilty of accessory to murder, before and after the fact. What action can be taken by another sub-alliance in regards to the lodge admitting such a man to membership? I find nothing in the constitution covering such a case. By answering at your earliest convenience direct to me or through the Prog. Farmer you will oblige

Fraternally Yours
