Mr Elias Carr S. T. Pres.

Dear Sir and bro

by request. I write to you for information. I will state the case a bro orders goods through the Alliance promising to pay for them in 30 days and then refuses to pay. Can the Alliance prosecute him in the civil law after he is expelled from the Alliance? The Alliance has went through the regular course of committee's and he has made double the amount of false promises to pay out of a certain job of work he was doing he received the pay for the work then refused to pay his Alliance debt please tell us what to do. yours truly
