Dear Brother

Wishing some information I take my seat to drop you a few lines in regard to the matter One of our Brothers some three months ago Engaged in business that rendered him ineligible to the order, and charges were made, and said brother was at once Expelled He has quit the business and is to get back in the not want to where he was

miles from home and join. when our lodge is in 2½ miles of said Brothers House.

If he has repented of his error we need him just as bad as any lodge does, and would be as glad to have him come back to the fold again.

If he will not come back to us, have they the right to take him in to theirs, without our consent.
