

Trusting that it may will accomplish its great and grand aim.

St. Johns, N.C.
Aug. 1st. 1891.

I am glad to inform you that our case was taken up at the county meeting and was decided at once that it was <sup>done</sup> unconstitutional and referred back to the board of arbitration of our lodge and settled at once all of us was reinstated at once. And I have been reelected Secretary at our meeting in June and I am writing you for the information. I will give me my dear brother
Alliance
Brethren
Secretary

Dear Bro. President
I wrote you several long letters concerning myself and eight other Brethren being expelled from our Alliance unlawful, and my letters were full of questions. The last one, I wrote you had several pointed question, as I was not satisfied with the way the or a few of its members dealt with me. Be mind that it
tional and

and proven to them that they had treated us wrong fully backed up by malice So I asked you a lot of constitutional questions to get posted by the county meeting. And I never got any answer from my last letter. So I come to the conclusion that my letter was so inquisitive and long that I wearied your patience and you come to the conclusion that I was a worthless fellow
alliance. Farmers as a general
as the professional class. So I try to express their feelings for they some times write long letters
very pleasant tone

So I guess that was the way with my letters My education are very deficient and sometimes I write letters that hath not a very pleasant ~~tone~~ tone but it is a mistake of my head and not an intence of the heart. So I desire to offer some appology for my long and wearysome letters Please excuse me for writing such long and inquisitive letters for my feelings was some what aroused in the way I had been treated.
I am a young man that my living at the
and is a
all the
