

OFFICE OF THE

Judge of the County Court of King George County,

CHAS. H. ASHTON, JUDGE,

Alden, King George Co., Va., ..... 18.....

returned to her friends under exceedingly mortifying -ing circumstances - I am glad to have to say that you personally were very kind to her and she was forced to leave your house by reason of the exceedingly uncomfortable position in which she was placed by other members of your household.
 The reaction which she has to you makes you liable for the result of their conduct - I want to say to you in plain language, not only in my judgment, but that of every one who had heard the facts there is no doubt of your liability to her for what you expect to pay. The fact that you told her she could stay when she was constantly being told by the words & acts of others to go and her stay made so unpleasant as to force her to leave does not for one moment meet the case. I appeal without further comment at this time, to your sense of justice to do for my daughter as you would have your own done by under similar circumstances if pay her what is due her.
 Yours truly
 C. H. Ashton
