(Verbatem copy)

Taylors Falls Minn. Oct 23rd 1891

To Mr M,D.Kelly, The Honorable R.M. St Paul & Duluth R.R. at St Paul below.

Dear Sir:-

Your humble servant Andy Sattery, Section Foreman at the Falls below, knows very little in regards to the killin of the Bull.

But hoswever what right had he here When he lived two miles beyant the right of Way but nevertheless he come over along in company With two of his female Sex and in the hight of their jollity they left the fence and they Were coeting the whole afternoon up and down the right of Way on the backs of one and the other and presently along come #7 and kits the little bull a Welt in the ass and knocks him to the pike below and breaks his bones to atoms and the Bull is dead.

This is all I know in regard to the killin of the Bull

Your humble servant at the Falls below

(Signed) Andy Slattery
