My dear Mr Elias:

I am really distressed to learn thro' a letter from Tom Battle to Mr Richard B. of the serious illness of your father and I write to express my warmest sympathy with him and you all, and the hope that he may soon recover. I feel very anxious about him as you can understand knowing the cordial friendships that exist between us. Please write me how he is by the next mail.

Hoping that this will find him rapidly convalescing and with love to him your mother and the little girls, I am,

Very sincerely yours

Rich. H. Lewis
