Waycombe County,
North Carolina.

Warrenton N.C., May 19, 1892.
Dear Uncle Elias:

Congratulations being now in order, allow me to assure you of my pleasure at your nomination, because I believe you will most conscientiously and honestly perform the duties that devolve upon the Chief Executive. In short, I am confident that the dignity and honor of the office will be sacredly upheld and that your reputation, the outcome of true character, at the expiration of your term will be so spotless and pure that those who on yesterday thrust this honor upon you will be able to say:
"Well done good and faithful man." May the God of all grace fill your heart with true love for the people and with this honor give you wisdom to direct us the rest of your administering Republic, W. C. Y. Parker
