(NO. 1888)

WM. S. O'B. ROBINSON, JR.,
RECEIVED.Wilmington, N. C., 19th May

1892

My dear Governor,

And time it is when raging war is done
To smile at scapes and perils overblown, In this instance I most cordially obey the Apostolic injunction and rejoice with those who do rejoice. In me to sing for joy, is no new thing, but to quote Shakespeare and mean of for joy, is a pitch of extravagant rapture to which I believe I have never before risen.
I dare not give vent to the expression of my great delight at your nomination. Mrs. Robinson too is I am sure greatly pleased; when I saw her last she wrote for "Dear Sam," God bless you and lead you not into temptation, but believe you sure to be, in the earnest, ardent wish and prayer of

Sincerely yours
W. S. O. B. Robinson

P.S. Do you want me to abuse you, or shall I say what is decently true of you and what would give me pleasure to say
