

H. R. HORNE,

DEALER IN

Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils,

Glass, Seeds, Toilet Articles, &c.,

25 HAY STREET.

Fayetteville, N. C., May 21 1892

Elias Carr Esq.,

Old Sparta,

My dear Sir :-

Allow me to congratulate you on the unexpected honor. I say unexpected because I inferred from your recent note to me that you did not expect or wish the nomination for Governor. If I had not been so improper, notwithstanding the indisposition of my wife, I should have gone to the Convention.

Our Cumberland Delegation should have ^{have} done good work for you at an opportune moment, and I trust the claim is a just one. At any note "All's well that ends well".

With Confidence in your Success and Sincere Congratulations

Yours very Truly,
H. P. Moore