Dear Uncle Eben,

I write to express our very great delight and also to congratulate you upon your nomination for Gov. It was my Father's prediction when you were elected president of of the State Alliance, that you would be our next Gov. (short while before he was stricken, I heard him say) that this convention was one that wanted to elect that he might use his influence & work for your nomination, as I thought you stood the best chance of any man in the State. My Father says your nomination is equivalent to your election. & when elected, he felt that you would not only discharge your duties most credit to your State & people but to your self, that if you wish your people right & use his expression that he thinks you will stand as good showing forth that I sent.

Children is looking forward to what called children are very poor We are well except my father, who has not been getting well for several days. All joint in London.

Yours very truly
W. Williams
