Dear Sir,

My Dear Sir,

I beg your pardon. I called on Mr. Sandelin, he was very unkind and read letters to you explaining all - I certainly sympathize with him and do hope something will turn up yet to his advantage. Efforts are being made to estrange him but he stands firm. As to the prop matter I never heard of it - I had 1000 miles tickets and know of course you had tickets also and though I was in the draw car was paying my paper as others. You may be prepared to hear all sorts of lies, but no one believes them and really there is no capacity to believe them. As this is the first I ever saw it corrected in the Chronicle so as to come from you in no way.

I was on Dick Butler and such of course all will be done admirably. The ticket gives more universal satisfaction and there can be no question as to its election only as to the propriety. I was greatly glad to see you and if anything happens which might not meet you after consultation with R. H. B. if we don't accompany with advice which you - matter, now an better than we had reason to expect.

Yrs Very Truly & Respectfully

Her Elias Carr.

My Dear Sir,

I have just been to see Mr. Sanderlin about the matter of your letter next this A. M. of which he will write you. There was of course no foundation for it - all originated I suppose from your saying to Mr. S. that I had spoken to you in his behalf for any good position that might be at your disposal. In this application I was sincere regarding him as a true man and a democrat and as such deserving of recognition of his state. If any thing can be done for him it will certainly be appreciated
