

R. J. POWELL,

COMMISSION MERCHANT

Storage and General Commission Merchant

ADAMS BUILDING, 310 AND 312 WILMINGTON STREET,

Raleigh, N. C., May 26 1892

DEAR SIR

Groceries,

Mr Ellis Conn.

Grain,

old spots A. C.

Hay,

My Dear Sirs Abo.

Bran,

I met Bro Ketterer

Ship-stuff,

today afternoon &amp; he very kindly invited me

Hardware,

to see it by some last night, which I did

Farming Implements,

in Company with Bro Ketterer &amp; Bro

Castings,

Ketterer's father to see your Holman &amp; can

Stoves,

determine to go &amp; see your place the out-

Best Grades of look, but after for ten days in and Gruas and Phosphates.

we could not get the interested

Good Flour a Specialty.

we interested. He expressed himself

Consignments of

in a general way, however, that

Cotton and other Produce the State ticket was satisfactory.

for knowing perhaps Anderson &amp; Co. Bank

Storage or Sale Solicited.

I am exceedingly anxious about the election of our <sup>State</sup> ticket, and the national ticket too, but I see but little hope for the latter. An Arrangement was made with my office yesterday and that was St. Louis Jan. 2. would demand the Electoral

The Congressmen - failing in what they aimed not support the action of the State Convention.
I have made many Enquiries but fail to find much response to the feeling. And it is on this line I wanted to talk particularly to Mr. Butler. I would be glad to have your conclusion after being with Mr. Butler or other here. Do you think our this party feeling will in any way try to encroach the State ticket.

I want to spend August in my old County. Chatham there is a great deal of dissatisfaction in that County, and I can be assured as many of the leading are my personal friends. You may rest assured my heart is in the field for your election, as also the pocket. I would be glad if you write me & make my suggestions you be fit - as they will be in confidence yours & naturally
R. Howell